Pearl Buck Appearance Highlights Forum Series

Harbor College's 1967-68 Forum Series will be highlighted by the appearance of Pearl Buck, the first American woman to be honored with a Nobel prize for literature.

Miss Buck's lecture, "An Evening with Pearl Buck," will be delivered Monday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym. All Forum programs are open to the public and admission is free.

"The Good Earth," Miss Buck's prize winning novel, was first published in 1932 and translated into more than 30 languages. Later, the book was brought to life by Paul Muni and Louise Rainer in a screen version.

MISS BUCK, the daughter of missionary parents, spent her childhood in the historic city of Chinkian, China. She spoke Chinese before she could speak English and did not begin her formal education until she was 17.

Anyone who has looked through the pages of Life, Time, Fortune and Coronet will remember the photography of Ansel Adams, the Forum's first guest. Adams will be in Seahawk Center at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 18, with "Creative Photography."

Besides photographing Yosemite and the Sierra Nevada, Ansel Adams has written several books in which his photography appears. His books include "The John Muir Trail," "Born Free and Equal" and "Sierra Nevada."

IN NOVEMBER, historian Claude Buss will speak on "America in the Far East," at Seahawk Center.

"Two by Land and Two by Sea," an around-the-world film journey by Thelma and Jean Taylor will be shown in December.

"Portraits of Italy" will be presented in January by Curtis Nagel, and in February, Robert Heilbroner, historian, will lecture on the "Future of American Capitalism."

March 14, there will be another travelogue entitled "London," with Spence Crilly.

April's guest speaker is well known to the American public, Dick Gregory will present his view on "American Racial Relations" April 15 in the Men's Gym.

To conclude the Forum Series in May, Hans Morgenthau will deliver a lecture entitled "Dilemmas of American Foreign Policy."
